

The gifts of leadership that we have exercised

.....Arataki weekend

These qualities emerged from the practical experiences that we reflected on. The people present on the weekend have recognised and used these leadership qualities. We noted the many similarities with the qualities we attributed to Jesus as a leader

Compassion

Empathy

Acceptance of cultural and economic differences

Discernment

Vision

Understanding

Listening

Trust & Co-operation

Acceptance + acknowledging faith

Respect

Humour

Taking Action

Courage - Willing to stand up for beliefs

Patience

Accepting the challenge

Knowledge

Communication

Ability to organise

People management - valuing and accepting others

Open mindedness

Available

Approachable

Prayer

Reflecting on what Jesus would do / Holy Spirit

Decisive / able to make a decision

Shared responsibility / involving others

Thinking outside the square

Learning from mistakes

Celebrating success

Affirmation

Knowing own abilities and recognising others abilities

Empowering others

Fairness

Determination

Passion

Being open to and accepting change

