Jesus as a Leader

He invited people to join in
He attracted & inspired people to follow
He called on his disciples to use their gifts
His goodness shined through him
People followed because of his action
People followed because of his good works
He had followers
He used the gifts he had
He showed mercy
He did not discriminate (He touched lepers)
He talked with 'anyone'
He chose to be with the ordinary people
He wasn't elitist: everyone was equal
He made people feel good
He praised others
He was non-judgemental
He publically forgave sinners
He forgave the thieves on the cross
He stood strong about what was right and wrong
He lived by what he taught
He was committed to his beliefs
He led by example
He was tolerant of people's weakness
He was welcoming
He was gentle
He focused on the positive
He looked ahead

He was understanding of human nature
He listened (to God & to people)
He believed in himself
He knew he was a mouthpiece for God
He knew history
He was a great communicator
He practiced what he preached
He 'walked the talk'
He was compassionate
He was caring
He was humble
He wasn't worried by the 'status quo'
He cared for the individual (esp the rejected)
He accepted people as they were
His words had meaning & understanding
He was human (he got angry)
He was simple in his message & life-style
He related to everyday life
He lived with the people & knew their struggles
He spoke up for the 'underdog'
He took time out to recharge his batteries
He traveled to where he was most needed
He offered spiritual nourishment
He had a loving and large extended family
He was subtle
He knew what he wanted (had a vision)
He talked about 'a different way'
He served (washing of feet)
He was understanding
He was sensitive & caring
He delegated

He was not judgemental
He told great stories
He had charisma
He gave everything (even his life)
He made himself available
He didn't have a whole lot of rules
He lived by his own rules (his truth)
He helped
He asked John to look after his Mother
He didn't worry about things that don't matter